A LITTLE BIT ABOUT HARLOW

Old school pub with a new school twist. The place you head to for a casual lunch and kick on into the evening.

This is the pub you can come to get plied with home comfort foods and a mass of cocktails. Listen to the signature albums and watch old school music videos.

The menu is design for those with only one hand free as the other is occupied with your favourite drink. More substantial's are also making an appearance on center stage, for when bite-size morsels won't cut the mustard.

We put people first and will do anything to make our mates happy. This is about locals and visitors coming together for good times only.
